15 v.
16 CHANCELOR KAUFMAN,
DEFENDANT.

CASE NO. 1:20-CR-00256-NONE-SKO
STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY;
FINDINGS AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

17
18 1. As described more fully below, the parties, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of 19 Criminal Procedure, for the reasons set forth below, hereby stipulate, agree, and jointly request that the 20 Court enter a Protective Order in this case restricting the use and dissemination of certain materials
21 containing personal identifying information (“PII”) of real persons and other confidential information of 22 victims, witnesses, and third parties.

23 2. As part of its investigation in the above-captioned case, the government is in possession
24 of materials relating to the charges against the defendants, including voluminous documents that contain
25 PII and other confidential information of real persons, including, among other things, personal names, 26 addresses, and dates of birth. These real persons are victims, witnesses, or third parties to this case. The 27 government seeks to provide these materials to counsel for the defendants.

28 3. The purpose of the proposed Protective Order is to prevent the unauthorized dissemination, distribution, or use of materials containing the PII or other confidential information of 1 others. If this information is disclosed without protective measures, or to defendants without limitation,

2 it will risk the privacy and security of the people to whom the information relates. The information
3 could itself be used to further criminal activity if improperly disclosed or used. The United States has 4 ongoing statutory and ethical obligations to protect the individuals whose PII is contained in these 5 documents.

6 4. Due to the large quantity of discovery<sup>1</sup> that contains PII, redacting all privacy-protected
7 information would be difficult and time-consuming. Accordingly, the parties jointly request a Protective
8 Order that will permit the government to produce discovery that is unredacted, but preserves the privacy
9 and security of victims, witness, and third parties. The parties agree that the following conditions, once
10 ordered by the Court in the proposed Protective Order, will serve the government's interest in 11 maintaining the privacy and security of victims and third parties, while permitting the Defense Team to 12 understand the United States' evidence against the defendants.

13 5. The Government intends to produce at least one large batch of discovery before February
14 12, 2021. This dissemination of discovery will not have PII redacted. The government will reproduce
15 this same discovery with PII redacted in February or March 2021 and identify it by insertion of the word
16 "redacted" in the footer. While this February or March production of duplicate discovery is not subject
17 to the protective order covering the instant discovery batch, the parties agree that should defense become 18 aware of any PII that has not been redacted, they will redact it. This does not require them to review all
19 discovery before sharing it with the defendants, but it does require that should defense become aware
20 during their review of the discovery that there is PII that was missed in the redaction process, they will 21 take affirmative action to correct it.

22 6. This Court may enter protective orders pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of 23 Criminal Procedure, Local Rule 141.1, and its general supervisory authority.

27 <sup>1</sup> The term "discovery" refers to materials of any kind provided to the defense by the 28 Government (except as filed with the Court) pursuant to its obligations under Rules 16 or 26.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution, or Title
18, United States Code, Section 3500.

II. PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

A. Protected Materials

7. This Order pertains to all unredacted discovery provided or made available to defense counsel in this case (hereafter, collectively “Protected Materials”).

8. For purposes of the Protective Order, the term “Personal Identifying Information” (“PII”) includes any information within the definition of a “means of identification” under 18 U.S.C. § 1028(d)(7) or any information within the definition of an “access device” under 18 U.S.C. § 1029(e)(1).

9. To the extent that notes are made that memorialize, in whole or in part, the PII in any Protected Materials, or to the extent that copies are made for authorized use by members of the Defense Team, such notes, copies, or reproductions become Protected Materials, subject to the Protective Order and must be handled in accordance with the terms of the Protective Order.

B. Defense Team

10. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Counsel” refers to the defendant’s counsel of record.

11. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Team” refers to (1) the defendant’s counsel of record, (2) other attorneys at defense counsel’s law firm or defense organization who may be consulted regarding case strategy in the above-captioned matter, (3) defense investigators who are assisting defense counsel with this case, (4) retained experts or potential experts, and (5) paralegals, legal assistants, and other support staff to defendant’s counsel of record providing assistance on this case. The term “Defense Team” does not include defendant, the defendant’s family, or other associates of the defendant unless they are in categories 1 to 4 in this paragraph.

12. Defense Counsel must provide a copy of this Order to all members of the Defense Team.

a) Defense Counsel must obtain written acknowledgement from members of the Defense Team that they are bound by the terms and conditions of this Protective Order before providing any Protected Materials to members of the Defense Team. The written acknowledgement need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

b) Members of the Defense Team who are employees of the Federal Defender’s

Office who have signed a confidentiality agreement as part of their employment are not required to sign a written acknowledgement. The confidentiality agreement need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

C. Disclosure of Protected Materials

13. The Defense Team shall not permit anyone other than the Defense Team to have possession of the Protected Materials, including the defendants themselves.

14. No person or party shall use any Protected Materials or information derived from Protected Materials produced in this action for any purpose other than use in the above-captioned case. All Protected Materials shall be used solely for the purpose of conducting and preparing for pre-trial, trial, post-trial, and appellate proceedings (both direct and collateral) in this criminal action and for no other purposes whatsoever, and shall not be used for the economic or other benefit of the defendants, or any third party. Protected Materials may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.

15. Defendants may review Protected Materials in this case only in the presence of a member of the Defense Team, and his or her Defense Counsel shall ensure that each defendant is never left alone with any Protected Information. Defendants may not copy, keep, maintain, or otherwise possess any of such Protected Materials at any time. Defendants must return any Protected Materials to the Defense Team at the conclusion of any meeting at which defendants review the Protected Materials. Defendants may not take any Protected Materials out of the room in which they are meeting with the Defense Team. Defendants may not write down or memorialize any PII contained in the Protected Materials. At the conclusion of any meeting with defendants, the member of the Defense Team present shall take with him or her all Protected Materials. At no time, under any circumstances, will any Protected Materials be left in the possession, custody, or control of the defendant, whether or not he or she is incarcerated, except as provided below.

16. If, during the pendency of the case, defendants request a copy of the Protected Materials from Defense Counsel, Defense Counsel may provide a copy of the Protected Materials to the defendant provided that Defense Counsel ensures that all PII contained in the Protected Materials is fully redacted. If Defense Counsel provides a redacted copy to defendants subject to these conditions, Defense Counsel

1 or a member of the Defense Team must contemporaneously memorialize in writing that it has fully
2 redacted PII from the Protected Materials and complied with this Order. This written certification need
3 not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court. Materials redacted in this
4 fashion are not subject to the restrictions in paragraph 15 above.

5 17. The Defense Team may review Protected Materials with a witness or potential witness in 6 this case. Before being shown any portion of the Protected Materials, however, any witness or potential
7 witness must be informed of the existence of the Protective Order and given a copy of the Protective
8 Order. No witness or potential witness may retain Protected Materials (whether redacted or not), or any 9 copy thereof, after his or her review of those materials with the Defense Team is complete.

10 18. This Order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the 11 Eastern District of California from disclosing the Protected Materials to members of the United States
12 Attorney's Office, law enforcement agencies, the Court, and defense.

13 19. Defense Counsel shall advise the United States with reasonable notice of any subpoenas,
14 document requests, or claims for access to the Protected Materials by third parties if Defense Counsel is 15 considering disseminating any of the Protected Materials to a third party, in order that the United States
16 may take action to resist or comply with such demands as it may deem appropriate.

17 D. Ensuring Security of Protected Materials

18 20. The Defense Team shall maintain the Protected Materials safely and securely, and shall 19 exercise reasonable care in ensuring the security and confidentiality of the Protected Materials by storing 20 the Protected Materials in a secure place, such as a locked office, or otherwise secure facility where 21 visitors are not left unescorted.

22 21. A copy of the Protective Order must be stored with the discovery, in paper form and 23 electronically.

24 22. To the extent that Protected Materials, or any copies or reproductions thereof, are stored
25 electronically, the Protected Materials will be stored on a password-protected or encrypted storage
26 medium, including a password-protected computer, or device. Encryption keys must be stored securely 27 and not written on the storage media that they unlock.

28 23. If a member of the Defense Team makes, or causes to be made, any further copies of any of the Protected Materials, Defense Counsel will ensure that the following notation is written, stamped or inscribed on whatever folder, container, or media contains the copies: "PROTECTED MATERIALS-SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." For example, if Defense Counsel makes a copy of a disc or physical file containing Protected Materials, the duplicate disc or file must be encrypted and marked with the above notation. In the event that the Defense Team makes or causes to be made copies of the Protected Materials for purposes of hearing or trial, it does not need to include this inscription.

E. Filings

24. In the event that a party needs to file Protected Materials containing PII, or materials otherwise identified as containing confidential information of victims, witnesses, or third parties with the Court, or disclose PII in court filings, the filing should be made under seal as provided for by the local rules. If the Court rejects the request to file such information under seal, the party seeking to file such information shall provide advance written notice to the other party to afford such party an opportunity to object or otherwise respond to such intention, including by making a request that the filing party redact the PII or confidential materials. If the other party does not object to the proposed filing, the party seeking to file such information may file the information without redaction.

F. Conclusion of Prosecution

25. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this prosecution. All Protected Materials subject to the Protective Order maintained in the Defense Team's files shall remain subject to the Protective Order unless and until such Order is modified by the Court.

26. Upon final disposition of the case, including exhaustion of direct and collateral appellate proceedings, Defense Counsel shall return the Protected Materials to the government, or certify in writing that the Protected Materials have been destroyed, but may retain copies of the Protected Materials if the copies have been redacted to remove all PII as defined herein. If Defense Counsel retains a redacted copy of the Protected Materials, Defense Counsel or a member of the Defense Team must contemporaneously attest in writing that it has fully redacted PII from the Protected Materials and complied with this Order. This written certification need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

27. If, upon final disposition of the case, defendant requests a copy of the Protected Materials from Defense Counsel, Defense Counsel may provide a copy of the Protected Materials to the defendant provided that Defense Counsel ensures that all PII contained in the Protected Materials is fully redacted. If Defense Counsel provides a redacted copy to defendant subject to the above conditions, Defense Counsel or a member of the Defense Team must contemporaneously attest in writing that it has fully redacted PII from the Protected Materials and complied with this Order. This written certification need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

G. Termination or Substitution of Counsel

28. In the event that there is a substitution of counsel prior to final disposition of the case, new counsel of record must join this Protective Order before any Protected Materials may be transferred from the undersigned defense counsel to the new defense counsel. New defense counsel then will become Defense Counsel for purposes of this Protective Order, and become Defense Team's custodian of materials, and shall then become responsible, upon the conclusion of appellate and post-conviction proceedings, for complying with the provisions set forth above. All members of the Defense Team, whether current or past counsel, are at all times subject to the Protective Order and are not relieved by termination of representation or conclusion of the prosecution.

H. Modification of Order

29. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification to the Order or from objecting to discovery it otherwise believes to be improper. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking a more restrictive protective order with regard to particular discovery items.

I. Violation of Order

30. Any person who willfully violates this Order may be held in contempt of court and maybe subject to monetary of other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court. This provision does not expand or narrow the Court's contempt powers.

J. Application of Laws

31. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect or comment on the admissibility or discoverability of the Protected Materials.

32. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the application of and the parties' compliance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Local Rules, and applicable statutes.
